Dear John:

STAT Thank you for recent participation in the military intelligence conference on 28 October. You, Al Burkhalter, and [redacted] together provided the new military intelligence chiefs and DIA leadership invaluable insight into the challenges facing them. Your perspectives proved particularly useful when compared and contrasted with those of David Chu and Charlie Hawkins.

I appreciate the time you took to make the conference a success.

STAT Sincerely,

Director, GDIP Staff

BIOGRAPHY

LIEUTENANT GENERAL LEONARD H. PERROOTS

Lieutenant General Leonard H. Perroots is the Director, Defense Intelligence Agency, Washington, D.C.

General Perroots was born April 24, 1933, in Morgantown, West Virginia, where he graduated from St. Francis High School in 1950. He received a bachelor of science degree in history from West Virginia University in 1955 and a master's degree in international affairs from George Washington University, Washington, D.C., in 1975. The general completed Squadron Officer School at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama, in 1960; Strategic Intelligence School in 1961; and the National War College at Fort Lesley J. McNair, Washington, D.C., in 1975; all as a distinguished graduate.

He received his commission through the Reserve Officer Training Corps program at West Virginia University and entered active duty in May 1955 as a squadron intelligence officer for the 95th Fighter-Interceptor Squadron, Andrews Air Force Base, Maryland. General Perroots was then assigned to the 59th Fighter-Interceptor Squadron at Goose Air Base, Labrador. In February 1959 he transferred to the Combined Services Support Program at Stead Air Force Base, Nevada, and attended Squadron Officer School from August until December 1960.

General Perroots returned to Stead Air Force Base where he was selected as chief of the Combined Services Support Program. From May 1962 to May 1965, he was assigned to Headquarters Alaskan Air Command at Elmendorf Air Force Base, Alaska, as chief, Operational Intelligence and Training Branch, Office of the Director of Intelligence.

In May 1965 General Perroots transferred to Air Force headquarters as chief of the Current Intelligence and Briefing Branch, Directorate of Estimates, Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff, Intelligence. In June 1969 he was assigned as chief, Combat Analysis Division, Directorate of Targets, Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Intelligence at Headquarters 7th Air Force, Tan Son Nhut Air Base, Republic of Vietnam.

After returning to the United States in August 1970, he was again assigned to the Air Staff as chief of the Operational Intelligence Division. During this period General Perroots' tour of duty was interrupted by special projects directed by the Air Force chief of staff and Joint Chiefs of Staff in support of Linebacker II bombing operations in Southeast Asia and fact finding requirements associated with the Middle East war. His Air Staff duties included briefing the White House Staff, congressional committees, Secretary of Defense, Joint Chiefs of Staff, Secretary of the Air Force and Air Force Chief of Staff. In September 1975, General Perroots was assigned to the Tactical Air Command, Langley Air Force Base, Virginia, as the director of operational intelligence and in February 1978 became deputy chief of staff for intelligence. In September 1980 he was assigned as deputy chief of staff for intelligence, Headquarters United States Air Forces in Europe, Ramstein Air Base, Germany. In May 1985, General Perroots became the Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence at Headquarters Air Force and the commander of the Air Force Intelligence Service.

His military decorations and awards include the Distinguished Service Medal, Legion of Merit with two oak leaf clusters, Bronze Star Medal, Meritorious Service Medal, Air Force Commendation Medal with one oak leaf cluster, Air Force Outstanding Unit Award Ribbon and Republic of Vietnam Gallantry Cross with palm.

He was promoted to Lieutenant General October 1, 1985, with date of rank October 1, 1985.

General Perroots is married to the former Mary Slavensky of Morgantown, West Virginia. They have five children: Sharon, Leonard Jr., Steven, Barbara, and John.

Honorable John N. McMahon
 Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
 Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear John:

25X1 (S) This confirms staff arrangements for you, Al Burkhalter, and [redacted]
 25X1 [redacted] to speak at a military intelligence conference [redacted] on 28
 October. The conference will introduce the new Service intelligence chiefs and flag-rank DIA leadership to national foreign intelligence concepts and programs. The agenda is attached.

(U) You lead-off the conference with two hours for NFIP overview and DCI perspectives. You may split time and topics among you as you think best.
 It will be important for the military newcomers to understand how the DCI sees his Community role and relationships with Defense. We would be pleased if you all would stay for lunch with the conferees.

(U) Dress will be casual. If bad weather keeps us from flying, we will switch to the director's conference room in the Defense Intelligence Analysis Center. We'll stay as close as possible to the original agenda.

25X1 (U) My points of contact are [redacted] (694-5043 or 25X1 secure 960-8112).
